RESUME OF STEVEN BULWICZ

LCDR Bulwicz was born in Jersey City, New Jersey on 30 August 1952. He graduated with a BA in Biology from Jersey City State College in June 1974. Immediately thereafter, he completed AVROC training and received a commission as an Ensign USNR on 8 November 1974. Following flight training at NAS Saufley, and NAS Kingsville, he was designated a Naval Aviator on 14 May 1976.

In February 1977, he completed A6A/E replacement pilot training and was assigned as a fleet carrier pilot with VA-145 operating aboard the USS Ranger (CV-61). From January 1980 through September 1981, he instructed student naval flight officers at VT-86, NAS Pensacola, in the TA-4J aircraft familiarization and defensive air combat maneuvering flight syllabus. From there, he continued service in the Ready Reserve and transitioned to the A-7B aircraft at VA-1287 and VA-304, NAS Alameda.

Following return to active duty in September 1982, LCDR Bulwicz transitioned to the EA-6B aircraft at VAQ-129, NAS Whidbey Island, and thereafter served with VAQ-139 operating aboard USS Constellation (CV-64). While attached to VAQ-139 as the Safety Department Head, the squadron earned the CNO Aviation Safety "S" Award, COMNAVAIRPAC Battle "E" and Meritorious Unit Commendation.

From 1986 until early 1988, LCDR Bulwicz was assigned to Commander, Medium Attack Tactical Electronic Warfare Wing, U. S. Pacific Fleet (COMMATVAQWINGPAC) staff as the aviation safety officer, as well as additional duty as a fleet replacement squadron instructor pilot. In February 1988, he returned to fleet squadron department head duties in VAQ-141 operating aboard USS Theodore Roosevelt (CVN-71) and USS Abraham Lincoln (CVN-72). Following six month temporary duty as COMATVAQWINGPAC staff operations officer, he reported for duty as Aviation Safety Programs instructor in November 1990.

LCDR Bulwicz is a 1984 graduate of the Aviation Safety Officer School. He has accumulated 3700 flight hours in tactical jet aircraft and has accomplished over 500 carrier arrested landings. Additionally, he holds an FAA Airline Transport Pilot (ATP) rating and is type rated in the Lear jet.
